Part 3- Reading

Questions 21-25

My name is Rosy. Everything was fine – my home, my school, my friends. Until the day we moved. That day, my whole world turned upside down. Nothing I did seemed right any more. People started to say how rude and bad-tempered I was. Every day Dad walked me to my new school through the wood behind our new house. It was dark and spooky, and I didn't like it one bit. Everyone at my new school seemed strange to me. I wished I was really tiny so I could hide in my dad's arms. There were nights when I just couldn't go to sleep. My dreams were scary. How I missed all my friends and my old home! One day snow was falling so school closed early. We walked home slowly, watching the silent wood in the swirling snow. All of a sudden, I saw a little face – a rabbit lying quite still, looking at me. I saw that it was hurt, so very carefully I picked it up and carried it home. Everyone agreed the rabbit could stay and Rosy named it as Minnie. Mum helped me take care of the rabbit's hurt leg.
