	Read the following article written on the basis of reopening of economy world wide in various sectors and answer the from question 13- question 17 E-Commerce –The pandemic has given rise to a “homebody economy”, as households make more use of online orders to avoid crowds. Across Europe’s largest e-commerce markets - France, Germany, and the UK - purchase behavior has evolved. According to a May study by Kantar, 9% of shoppers make more online purchases than before; 60% say they will continue to shop online after the outbreak; and 80% say they will shop online again for non- essential items. Gaming - The pandemic has accelerated existing trends within the gaming industry, such as the way gamers purchase and consume, moving from packaged games to downloadable content. Another indicator of this shift, mobile apps in general have skyrocket during the crisis and are expected to account for 48% of the global games market this year, according to Newzoo’s April study. Automotive industry - As consumers regain the ability to travel in a post-lockdown world, they’ll also be more concerned with how to commute safely. Despite being caught in the grip of the Covid-19 pandemic, the automotive industry has been a surprising early riser post-confinement.	1

	Marketers have quickly realised that more consumers are exploring car ownership now that they want to reduce their use of public transport. Blogging - Confined to their homes, most people have resorted to creating their own blogging services related to every field. Home cooks have emerged successfully creating their own reels. Many ready to cook food companies have resorted to advertising their products through these influential bloggers. Finance - In the early stages of Covid-19, finance, and especially insurance services, saw a huge spike in page views as consumers wanted to ensure the safety and health of their families. Following the global financial uncertainty, consumer behaviour has shifted from a "now" mindset to one that prioritises the future - thinking more about how to invest and protect savings. As this crisis continues to evolve, finance will likely continue to be a high priority, and brands have started to identify the current mood and concerns of their customers through feedback, observations and are deciding as to how best to address them. Source: Trendspotting-exchange4media.com; June, 2020.
