

Question Bank

Grade 6- Science

Chapter 1- SOURCES OF FOOD

Answer the following questions:

1. Which teeth help zebras chew plant matter?
2. Observe the teeth of the lion in the image and name the type of teeth that are used to puncture and tear flesh.

3. The incisors of giraffe are broad and flat.' Explain why.
4. Rats feed on hard seeds. What kind of teeth should they have to help them bite the seeds?
5. 'Humans and chimpanzees share similar types of teeth.' Do you agree with the statement? Why or why not?
6. Why are bears classified as omnivores?
7. . What is the first link in a food chain?
8. Give an example of an animal that consumes plants indirectly.
9. What do decomposers eat?
10. Why are green plants known as producers?
11. We get our food items from plants and animals. Do you agree? Give reasons.
12. a) Draw arrows to indicate a food chain in the following animals.
Hawk, Grass, Sparrow, Caterpillar
b) . Which animal in the above food chain is a herbivore?
c) What do the arrows indicate?
13. Name two sugar producing plants.

14. Write the names of the plants that provide us:

Vegetables, Fruits, Cereals or grains, Pulses, Oil or fat.

15. Name some plants which have two or more edible parts.

16. What is honey? What is its importance?

17. What is difference between herbivore, carnivore, omnivore.

18. Define Scavengers and Parasites with examples.

19. What are known as 'energy rich food'?

20. Suppose one of your friends had only one chapati, some rice and one bowl of pulses for his daily meal. Do you think that by eating such meal he can work and play whole day?

21. What is food chain ? Explain with example.

22. Given below are jumbled words which are names of parts of a plant. Rearrange them to get the correct words.

(a) LILCHI

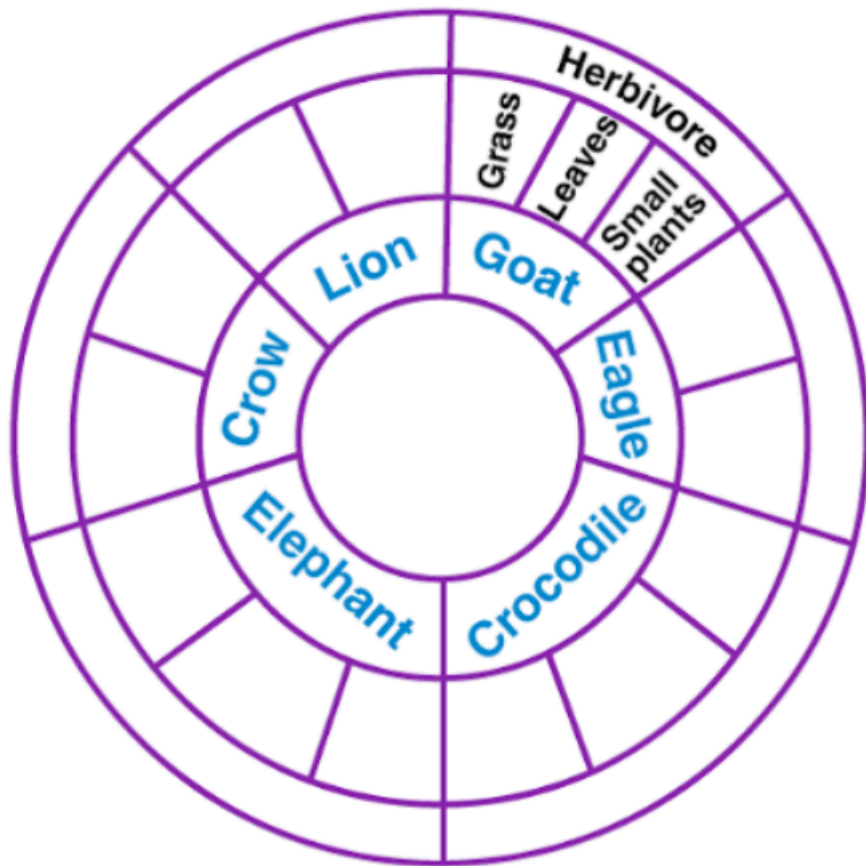

(b) ITRUF

(c) SEANBOYA

(d) GURSA

(e) ROUNDGUNT

23. Read the names of animals written in the inner ring of Figure. Within the second ring write the types of food they eat and the category to which they belong (based on the eating habit) in the outermost ring. One example has been worked out for you. Use red, green and blue colours for writing.

24. List two of your favorite food items and mention their ingredients.