

CLIMATE OF INDIA

GRADE 4

Question Bank

A. Give one word for each of the following.

1. Weather patterns in a large area over a long period of time
2. The height of a place above sea level
3. Hot, dry winds that blow over northern India during the summer season
4. The amount of water vapor present in the air
5. A thick cloud of small drops of water that touches the ground

B. Choose the correct option.

1. This is the coldest month in many parts of India.
 - a. December
 - b. January
 - c. February
2. This place in Meghalaya holds the record for the highest rainfall in India.
 - a. Mawsynram
 - b. Shillong
 - c. Dawki
3. The Rann of Kutch receives rainfall.
 - a. heavy
 - b. minimal
 - c. no
4. This season occurs for a short spell between monsoon and winter
 - a. summer
 - b. spring

c. autumn

5. This city has moderate temperatures throughout the year.

a. Kanpur

b. New Delhi

c. Mumbai

C. Answer the following questions.

1. What are the elements that define the climate of a region?

2. Why do coastal areas enjoy a moderate climate?

3. What are the weather conditions in the mountainous areas during the winter season

4. Explain the impact of the distance from the equator on the climate of a place.