

QUESTION BANK

GRADE 4

ENGLISH

Chapter 7: The Father of Plastic Surgery

1)A. Read the line and answer the questions.

1. So, the young doctors had to think of other ways. (Father of Plastic Surgery)

a. Why did the doctors have to think of other ways of practising to operate?

b. Why did Sushruta and other doctors feel the need to practise before operating?

c. What alternatives did they find?

2. Sushruta knew it was important for surgeons to know how to bandage and stitch wounds correctly.

a. What, according to Sushruta, was the danger if a wound was not bandaged?

b. How could the young doctors learn to bandage wounds?

c. How could they practise to stitch wounds?

B. Choose the correct answer.

1. Sushruta mended a man's nose using skin from the man's cheek.
This was

a. probably the beginning of plastic surgery.

b. an example of the skill of surgeons.

c. the first surgery performed on humans

2. What is Sushruta Samhita?

a. This is a Sanskrit book containing the teachings of Sushruta.

b. This is a medical book used for training doctors to perform surgery.

c. This is a book about plastic surgery.

3. How did Sushruta teach young doctors how to extract teeth?

a. He told them to pull out teeth from the jaws of dead animals.

b. He told them to practise on rotten wood.

c. He told them to practise by taking out seeds from thick jackfruit pulp.

C) Underline the adverbs in these sentences. Write whether they are adverbs of time, place or manner.

1) I am meeting Thomas here.

2) He wrote neatly on the board.

3) You should work slowly on the slippery floor.

D) Write the antonyms of the given words

1) Unknown

2) Challenging

3) Fresh

Answer key

A1)Ans: a. Most people were not willing to let the surgeons operate on their bodies.

b. They felt that book knowledge was not sufficient and that, to perform successful surgeries, they needed to actually perform operations.

c. They practised on soft and fleshy fruits, on moulded wax, on a broken stem of a lotus lily, on rotten wood and on animals used for sacrifice.

2)Ans: a. If a wound was left uncovered, it would attract gnats and flies, and sweat and dust which would make the wound itchy and infected.

b. They could learn how to tie bandages by working on the bodies of stuffed life-size dolls.

c. They could practise stitches on leather and on cloth.

B1) a

2) a

3) c

C) 1 here - adverb of place

2 neatly - adverb of manner

3 slowly - adverb of manner

D) unknown × known

Challenging × easy

fresh × stale