

Class: 7	English	Ref. Book: GULMOHAR
Question Bank	TOPIC: Friends and Flatterers	Type: (SAQ)

Q.N No	Question
	Answer the following questions.
1.	What does the speaker in the poem say about flatterers? Ans: They are no good as friends when one is sad.
2.	Why does he compare words to the wind? Ans: Words come easy to flatterers like the wind that blows without much effort.
3.	Why does he say it is difficult to find faithful friends? Ans: It may not always be easy to have friends who will see us through sad as well as happy times.
4.	What does the speaker in the poem say about flatterers? Ans: They are no good as friends when one is sad.
5.	Why does he compare words to the wind? Ans: Words come easy to flatterers like the wind that blows without much effort.
6.	Why does he say it is difficult to find faithful friends? Ans: It may not always be easy to have friends who will see us through sad as well as happy times.
7.	When will we have friends all around us, according to the speaker? Ans: When we have the money to give them a good time
8.	What will happen when you are in need? Ans: No one may come forward to help you out.
9.	Whom will the flatterers consider generous? Ans: A person who squanders his wealth on them.
10.	To what extent will they flatter such a person? Ans: They will say he should have been the king himself.