

Qn. No	Questions	Marks allocated
	Very Short Answer Type Questions
1	Why are people considered an important part of society?	2
2	Name the states where almost half of India's population resides.	2
3	Name any two states having a density below 100 person per sq km.	2
4	What has been the trend of growth rate since 1981? Why?	2
5	Name the state having the highest sex ratio and the state having the lowest.	2
	Short Answer Type Questions
6	What are the three major issues to inculcate through the census?	3
7	Mention three facts revealed by the 2011 census data.	3
8	Which regions a India have moderate population densities and which regions have high to very high population densities? Why?	3
9	The substantial improvement in the health conditions of the Indian population is the result of many factors. What are these factors?	3
10	Why is the health situation still in matter of major concern for India?	3
	Long Answer Type Questions

11	Describe the Size and distribution of population in India.	5
12	What is meant by annual growth rate of population? Why is even low annual growth rate of population considered not good for India?	5
13	"Distribution of population is uneven in India". Describe the factors responsible for it.	5
14	What are the processes of population change or growth? Describe them.	5
15	Why is population very important in a country?	5