

Chapter 7

Worksheet

A. State whether the following statements are true or false.

1. The narrator first saw a tiger in the Kanha Tiger Reserve in Madhya Pradesh.
2. India's forests can support up to 10,000 tigers if managed correctly, according to Dr. K Ullas Karanth.
3. Poaching is driven by deep-rooted cultural beliefs in the effectiveness of tiger products for treating illnesses.
4. Some wildlife reserves in India, like Kaziranga and Corbett, have successfully maintained thriving tiger populations despite ongoing challenges like poaching.
5. Wildlife conservation efforts primarily benefit tigers alone, with minimal impact on other species in their habitat.

B. Choose the correct option.

1. What is a major threat to tigers mentioned in the text?
 - a) Climate change
 - b) Habitat destruction
 - c) Forest fires
2. Which reserves in India have successfully maintained thriving tiger populations despite challenges like poaching?
 - a) Gir Forest National Park
 - b) Kaziranga National Park
 - c) Sunderbans National Park
3. The extract 'Saving the Tiger' is
 - a) non-fiction
 - b) fiction.
 - c) a fantasy.

Chapter 7

Grammar Worksheet

A. Indicate whether the underlined words are phrases (P) or clauses (C).

1. Shaun is at home today, but he is going to the amusement park tomorrow. ___
2. After Sayali returned from Delhi, she fell ill. ___
3. Rakesh, a good runner, easily won the race. ___
4. Once upon a time, on Christmas Eve, old Mr Scrooge sat counting his money. ___
5. Rohan is carrying a dark blue school bag. ___
6. Peter hurt his leg and was taken to a clinic near his house. ___

B. Underline the adverbial phrases (AP) or adverbial clauses (AC) in these sentences, as indicated.

1. The aeroplane landed in a nearby field.
2. Daniel played well in spite of his injury.
3. We will watch a movie after we finish our chores.
4. She waited while I talked to my friend on the phone.
5. He looked at me strangely, as if he did not know me.
6. We met them only last week.
7. I switched off all the lights and fans before I left the house.
8. She gets up at the crack of dawn.

C. Underline the adverbial phrases.

1. Minu stays near the lake.
2. The place was extremely cold.
3. The birds flew towards the north.
4. We went sailing over the sea.
5. The man walked away in a hurried manner.