

WORKSHEET

Geography -Chapter -5

Industries

A: Choose the correct answer

1. What are industries?

- A) Agricultural activities
- B) Manufacturing and production activities
- C) Fishing and forestry
- D) None of the above

2. Which of the following is a primary industry?

- A) Mining
- B) Automobile manufacturing
- C) Information technology
- D) Retail

3. Which type of industry involves the extraction of raw materials from the earth?

- A) Primary industry
- B) Secondary industry
- C) Tertiary industry
- D) Quaternary industry

4. What is the purpose of the secondary industry?

- A) Extracting raw materials

- B) Producing finished goods
 - C) Providing services
 - D) None of the above
5. Which of the following is an example of a cottage industry?
- A) Handloom weaving
 - B) Automobile manufacturing
 - C) Software development
 - D) Banking

B: Fill in the Blanks

6. Industries play a crucial role in the _____ of a country's economy.
7. _____ is the process of converting raw materials into finished goods.
8. The _____ industry is involved in providing services rather than producing goods.
9. _____ industries are typically small-scale and often involve manual labor.
10. Industrialization leads to _____ and _____ development of a country.

C: Write True or False

11. The primary industry is focused on providing services. (True/False)

12. Secondary industries involve the extraction of raw materials.
(True/False)

13. Cottage industries are typically large-scale operations. (True/False)

14. Industrialization can lead to urbanization. (True/False)

15. Tertiary industries are involved in manufacturing. (True/False)

D: Short Answer Questions

16. What are the main types of industries?

17. How does industrialization impact the economy of a country?

18. Explain the difference between primary, secondary, and tertiary industries.

19. What role do cottage industries play in rural economies?

20. How does globalization affect industries around the world?