

WORKSHEET
GEOGRAPHY-CHAPTER-6
HUMAN RESOURCES

A: Choose the correct answer

1. What does the term "human resources" refer to?
 - a) Natural resources
 - b) Resources made by humans
 - c) People and their skills
 - d) Animal resources

2. Which of the following is NOT a form of human resource?
 - a) Labor
 - b) Capital

 - d) Knowledge

3. What is the primary factor that determines the quality of human resources in a country?
 - a) Population size
 - b) Education and training
 - c) National income
 - d) Urbanization rate

4. Which of the following is an example of human-made capital?
 - a) Rivers
 - b) Factories
 - c) Forests

d) Mountains

5. Which of the following is NOT considered a part of human resources?

- a) Education
- b) Healthcare
- c) Technology
- d) Workforce

6. The process of improving the skills and knowledge of workers is known as _____.

- a) Labor force
- b) Human resource development
- c) Industrialization
- d) Urbanization

B: Fill in the Blanks

7. _____ refers to the skills, knowledge, and abilities possessed by people.

8. Human resources are considered the most _____ resource for a nation's development.

9. The availability of _____ greatly influences the productivity of human resources.

C: Write True or False

10. Human resources only include physical labor. (True/False)

11. Education and healthcare are examples of human resources. (True/False)

12. Human capital refers to the financial resources owned by individuals. (True/False)

13. Human resources are static and do not change over time. (True/False)

D: Short Questions

14. Explain the difference between human resources and human capital.

15. Why is education considered an important aspect of human resources development?

16. How does migration affect human resources in different regions?

17. What are the main factors influencing the quality of human resources in a country?

18. Discuss the role of technology in shaping human resources.

19. How do government policies impact human resources development?

20. What are the challenges faced in managing human resources in urban areas?